

COVID-19: the podcast

With the spectacular voices of:
Kelsea Bomar | Serphina Moreno | Mark Jongejan | Artemisia Figetakis

A conversation on experiences during the COVID-19 pandemic from US citizens and Dutch citizens. Are we in the same boat or can you spot the differences? What are the consequences of the virus for students?

"Countries need to review their strategies."

Dr. Michael J. Ryan, WHO Informal Advisory Group, March 2020

Combatting the virus: giving those who lost their job due to the pandemic the opportunity to re-start their career in health care, and this way increasing workforces that directly combat the virus (through elderly care, vaccinating, and more).
