

2015 VSRA Conference Proposal

* Required

Proposal Details

Exemplary proposals demonstrate clarity in presentation content and process, as well as participant outcomes.

Title of Proposal *

Reading Between the Pixels: Media Literacy Instruction in the Digital Age

Proposal Abstract *

Provide a 25-30 word descriptive statement for the conference program that gives a clear picture of the content of the proposed session.

The media landscape is undergoing a rapid and massive sea change. Instruction in media literacy must evolve to meet the challenges of these changes in order for our students to thrive in the digital age.

Proposal Content *

What content will be presented?

Presentation will identify specific changes in the media landscape and the importance of media literacy to meet the demands of the digital age. How media messages are crafted and the skills need to thrive in the world of new media will be examined.

Proposal Process *

How will participants be engaged with the learning?

Presentation will make use of hand-outs, electronic slideshow presentation, and oral interaction.

Participant Outcomes *

What will participants know and be able to do as a result of participation in the session?

Understand how media messages - with a focus on new media - are crafted and how they can be misleading.
Understand and explain why media literacy will be increasingly important in the future.
Have knowledge of several instructional strategies for improving media literacy.
