

Samuel DiLandro

Fluent in French and enthusiastic about teaching the French language and culture.

EXPERIENCE

English & Modern Languages, Longwood University — French Tutor

January 2019 - December 2020

Aided Longwood students in their French studies.

Contacted French faculty regularly with updates on tutoring schedules and student performance.

Short Pump Middle School, Glen Allen, VA — Practicum Student/Teacher

May 2019 - June 2019

Observed and assisted in instructing French classes for a three-week practicum.

Designed and implemented group lessons.

Powhatan Middle School, Powhatan, VA — Practicum Student/Teacher

September 2020 - November 2020

Observed and assisted in instructing two French classes.

Established and taught two lessons to two French classes.

Food Lion, Toano, VA — Produce Associate

May 2020 - Present

Guided, directed, and collaborated with other associates.

Engaged in conversation with, and helped customers.

EDUCATION

Longwood University, Farmville, VA — Bachelor of Arts

August 2017 - May 2021

Graduating cum laude in May 2021 with a Bachelors in French with 15 education course credits and 127 hours spent in the classroom.

Université Grenoble Alpes, Grenoble, France — Study Abroad

August 2019 - December 2019

Spent five months immersed in the French language and culture in the French Alps with API.

13400 New Kent Highway
Lanexa, VA 23089
(804) 814-3817
samuel.dilandro
@live.longwood.edu

SKILLS

Proficient with Google Drive, Microsoft Office, Zoom, and Google Meet.

Experienced in scheduling, time management, and organization.

AWARDS

FLAVA University Student Recognition Award 2020 - For excellence in language study and contributions in and beyond the classroom.

LANGUAGES

English, French, and a novice in Spanish.

CERTIFICATION

ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview - Achieved a score of Intermediate High.

PRAXIS 2 French: World Language - Achieved a passing score of 163.

