

Assignment:

You will create a Public Service announcement, in groups, at the end of the unit. Before you create your PSA, you will create a story board to help you outline your PSA. You will use the checklist I provide for you to identify characteristics of a PSA. You will also use this checklist to create your PSA. All good PSAs will have the characteristics included on the checklist. Your group will use this checklist to peer review other story boards and PSAs. I will use this checklist to grade your Story Board and PSA. Your groups will be based on what book you read. At the end of the unit, your PSAs will be finished and your group will then present your PSA to the class.
