

Call for Proposals

The College of Graduate and Professional Studies Presents

2017 Graduate Research Symposium

A showcase of interdisciplinary graduate research at Longwood University April 26, 2017

The conference, sponsored by the College of Graduate and Professional Studies and Graduate Council, will be held in the Greenwood Library on April 26 from 1pm– 6pm, followed by a reception in the Library Atrium at 6pm.

The Longwood University Graduate Research Symposium welcomes proposals from any Longwood graduate students or recent alumni. This symposium highlights new and ongoing graduate research and offers students an opportunity to present their work in a professional setting before faculty, peers, and undergraduate colleagues.

Graduate students may present on any aspect of their current research, in whichever form is most relevant to their respective discipline or field of study. Off-campus graduate students can share their work through online options .

Please submit your research symposium proposal application after reviewing your idea with your graduate advisor. The application can be found here: <https://goo.gl/forms/0XtwrwL5U194Csfm2>

Please send questions or comments to Dr. Karla Collins at collinskb@longwood.edu .

Deadline for proposals is March 13, 2017.