

BLACKWELL TALKS

Fall 2016 • NOON-1 PM • MAUGAN'S VIRGINIA ROOM

OCTOBER 10: Dr. Hua (Meg) Meng

“Naughty and Nice: Dimensions of Scent Personality”
Department of Management and Marketing

OCTOBER 17: Ms. Lindsey Stokes, MEd, LAT, ATC

“Integration of Critical Appraisal into Health Care Education”
Department of Health, Athletic Training, Recreation, and Kinesiology

OCTOBER 24: Dr. Lissa Power-deFur & Dr. Jake Milne

“The Identity Negotiation Process among Adults with a Hearing Loss”
Department of Social Work and Communication Sciences and Disorders and the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice Studies

OCTOBER 31: Dr. Sarai Blincoe & Dr. Catherine Franssen

“A rewarding disconnection: Going cell phone-free for extra credit”
Department of Psychology

November 7: Dr. Doug Dalton

“A Report on Anthropological Fieldwork in Papua New Guinea”
Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Criminal Justice Studies

November 14: Ms. Courtney Kelly

“Before They Teach: Pre-Service Teachers’ Perceptions of Planning Differentiated Literacy Instruction”
College of Education and Human Services

CAFE
CENTER FOR FACULTY ENRICHMENT

SPONSORED BY:

- College of Education & Human Services • Cormier Honors College
- Cook-Cole College of Arts & Sciences • College of Business & Economics
- Greenwood Library • and the College of Graduate & Professional Studies