

BLACKWELL TALKS

SPRING 2016 • NOON-1 PM • MAUGAN'S VIRGINIA ROOM

FEBRUARY 22: Dr. Kristopher Paal

“Using Oral Histories to Understand Media and Society”
CCCAS, Department of Communication Studies

FEBRUARY 29: Dr. Karla Collins,

Dr. Patricia Horne Hastings, and Ms. Jenny Quarles

“Modeling Effective K-12 Classroom Collaboration”
College of Education and Human Services, and Digital Education Collaborative

March 14: Dr. Elif Guler

“The Symbolic Restoration of Women’s Place in Turkish Society:
Resurrection “Ertuğrul” as a Social Interventional Attempt”
CCCAS, Department of English and Modern Languages

MARCH 21: Dr. Justin Contat

“Are Home Warranties Worth it? A Study in the Richmond Housing Market”
College of Business and Economics

MARCH 28: Dr. Sarah Porter, Dr. Benjamin Topham, Dr. Andrew Yeagley, and Mr. Sam King

“Tautomerization in Drug Design: the Study of an Imine-Amine Pair Using Spectroscopy, Chemometrics and Quantum Theory”
CCCAS Department of Chemistry and Physics

April 4: Dr. Kellyn Hall

“Improving the Dining Experience, Health and QOL in Skilled Nursing Facility
Residents With and Without Swallowing Difficulties”
CEHS, Department of Social Work and Communication Sciences & Disorders

CAFE
CENTER FOR FACULTY ENRICHMENT

SPONSORED BY:

- College of Education & Human Services • Cormier Honors College
- Cook-Cole College of Arts & Sciences • College of Business & Economics
- Greenwood Library • and the College of Graduate & Professional Studies