Optimax: Intelligent Subtitles

Connect with the present,

See the future

Now!

--	--	--

Optix Subtitled is a type of contact lenses that translates words spoken to you, and around you, into real-time subtitles

The contact lenses fit in both of the user's eyes just like regular contact lenses

The main computer and microphone unit is no larger than a dime, and is made to clip on the front of the user's shirt!

The contacts produce translucent words in the users chosen language as if they were in a movie
