

Pamela “Casey” Ridpath

pamela.ridpath@live.longwood.edu
804-731-0021

Education

Longwood University, Farmville VA

Bachelor of Art in History

Concentration: Secondary Education

May 2020

GPA: 3.81 Cormier Honors College

Study Abroad: Longwood in Spain

May - June 2017

Employment

Colonial Heights Public Schools

Colonial Heights, VA

Paraprofessional Substitute Teacher

December 2016 - Present

- Maintained student's daily schedule
- Managed classroom behavior
- Worked one on one with special needs students
- Assisted with the completion and comprehension of assignments for special needs students

Local Childcare Provider

Colonial Heights, VA

- Provides transportation and daily care of two elementary aged children
- Supervision of children for an entire workday
- Provide for any needs of the children or family; such as, caring for pets, cleaning up daily activities, and keeping adolescents safe

June 2015 - Present

Career and Advancement Services

Farmville, VA

- Works in a professional environment with employees of Longwood University
- Completes clerical work for a supervisor

August 2017 - Present

Peer Mentor

May 2017 - Present

- Facilitates weekly classroom activities with first year college students
- Advises a group of students throughout their freshman year of college
- Works closely with first year college students during a 4 day orientation

Campus Involvement and Community Service

Alpha Delta Pi

January 2017 - Present

- Member Education Vice President
- Guard

November 2017- Present

Honor Board Justice

2017 - 2018

U.S. Vice Presidential Debate - Volunteer

Honors and Awards

Longwood Legacy Scholarship

July 2017

Haslewood Family Award Scholarship

May 2018

- Given to an exceptional undergraduate history student