To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to give my unconditional recommendation for Ms. Sarah Saunders regarding employment in your organization. I was Sarah's Medical-Surgical Nursing classroom and clinical instructor during the Fall Semester 2019 and Spring Semester 2020. Ms. Sarah Saunders constantly participated in class and was a valuable asset in the classroom.

She possessed excellent critical thinking abilities, further than the expected level for a Junior Level BSN nursing student. She was also very kind, temperate, kindhearted, diligent, and proficient at all times during her studies. Sarah was a natural leader in the classroom and clinical settings. She was an eager participant in all activities in both the classroom and clinical settings. She was an asset to my Medical-Surgical classes and asked thought provoking questions during the semester.

Sarah is a dedicated student and had perfect attendance both in the classroom and clinical settings. In the clinical setting, she demonstrated great critical thinking skills and always took excellent care of the patients. She was eager, focused, and keen to learn, and displayed big inventiveness.

Without question, she demonstrated exceptional nursing potential and would be a great fit in your organization.

If you have any questions, please feel to contact me.

Sincerely,

Wendy P. Thompson DNP, RN
