To Whom it May Concern:

Please allow this to serve as a Letter of Recommendation for Ms. Shaunah Smyre. Over the past two years I have known Shauna, I have served as her course Instructor in two courses in the Social Work Program at Longwood University. I also serve as Shauna's Academic Advisor. In these capacities, I have observed several qualities and attributes which I feel leave her well-poised for the rigors of graduate school and employment.

Shaunah consistently earned strong grades in her coursework. This is based upon high-level written communication skills, strong critical thinking skills, professional-level collaboration skills, and impressive introspection and self-awareness. She approached the course very professionally, demonstrating good time management, organizational skills, and a commitment to getting the most out of the course.

Additionally, she shows a healthy balance between knowing when to complete tasks independently and when to seek teamwork and collaboration. She approaches her work with discipline and with very high standards. I also observed that her academic performance came from a very genuine embracing of social work values and ethics.

It has been a pleasure serving as Shauna's Instructor. Her initiative, talent, and work ethic lead me to unhesitatingly recommend you give her strong consideration for your program or employment position. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please just contact me at the e-mail address above.

Gratefully and Respectfully,

Ian M. Danielsen
