

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Child Life Specialist position. As a highly motivated and compassionate individual, I am confident that my skills and experiences, as shown in my resume, align very well with the requirements of this position.

During my time as a Brand Associate at Old Navy and a Cashier at Sweet Frog and currently, a Teachers Assistant at HeadStart Childcare, I learned customer service and communication skills with all ages, but especially with children, which are crucial for interacting with children and families in a supportive and empathetic manner. At all places of employment, I was recognized for my dedication and positive attitude, and my ability to create an organized and functional environment, which I believe translates to creating a comforting and engaging space for children.

My volunteer work with Healthy Chesapeake, Southside SPCA, Heartland Horse Heroes, and Special Olympics Parades demonstrates my commitment to serving diverse communities and working with individuals of all ages and abilities. These experiences have given me a deep understanding of the importance of compassion, patience, and adaptability when working with vulnerable populations.

As a College Student at Longwood University, I have developed strong organizational and leadership skills. I am eager to apply my skills in customer service, communication, and time management to support children and families during challenging times.

I am passionate about making a difference and leaving a positive impact on the lives of children and believe that my genuine care and dedication would make me a valuable asset to your team. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your organization.

Sincerely,

Callie Rosenberger
