

International and Domestic Human Trafficking Course

Jessica LaPlaga, Virginia Bryington,
Erin Axeman

Why We Chose This

- Lack of awareness about human trafficking
 - Its causes
 - Public perceptions
 - Current laws
 - What we can do to stop it

Survey Says!

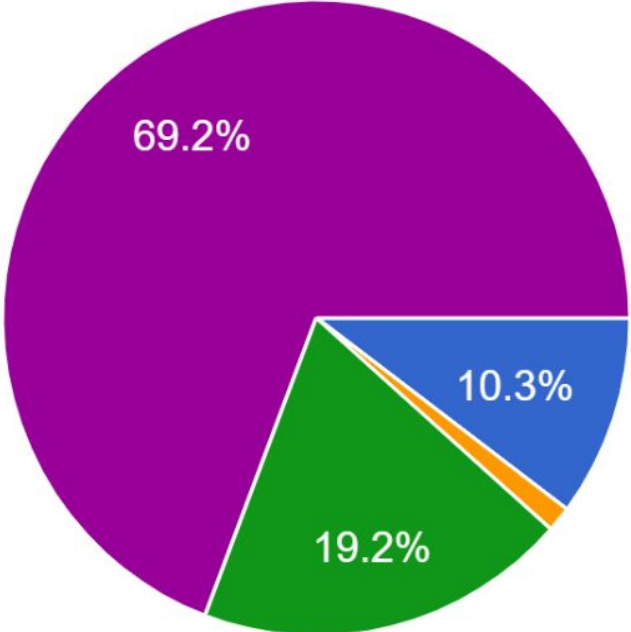

- We sent out a survey to our peers to get a better understanding of their knowledge on the topic
- We received 78 responses.

Human trafficking is a severe, global issue

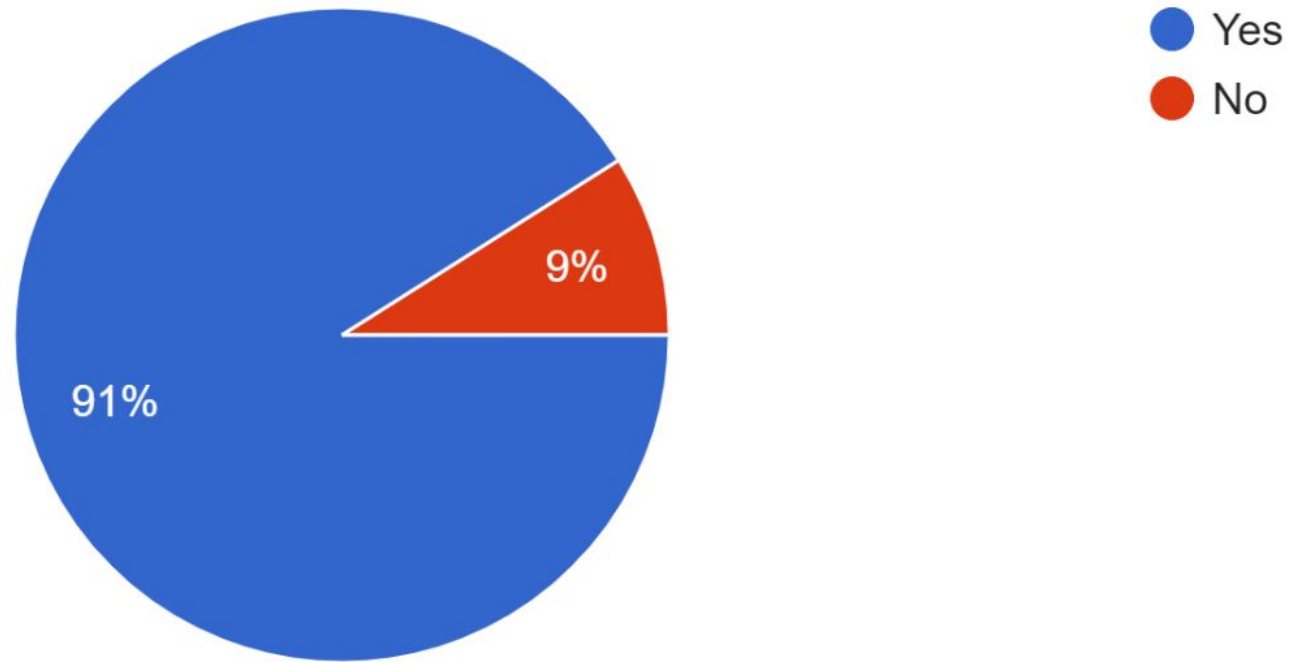

78 responses

- Strongly disagree
- Disagree
- Neutral
- Agree
- Strongly agree

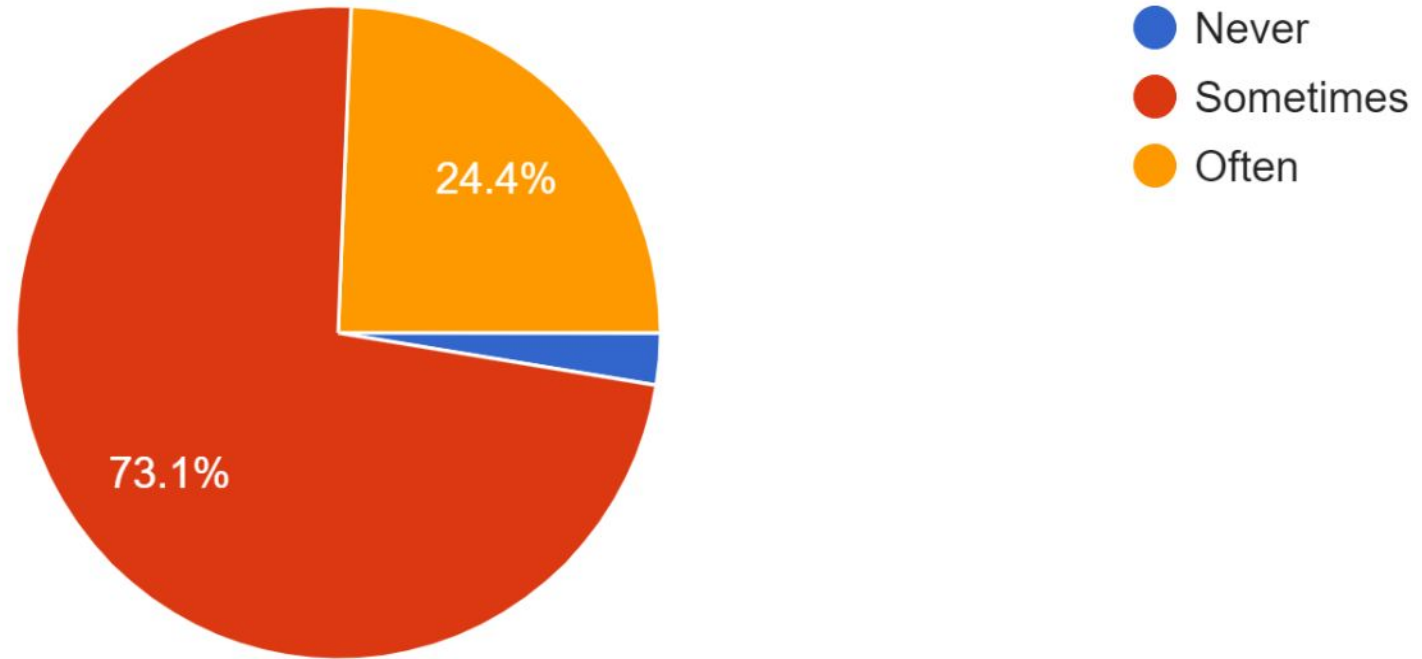

Do you believe that we as a community could have an impact on this issue?

78 responses

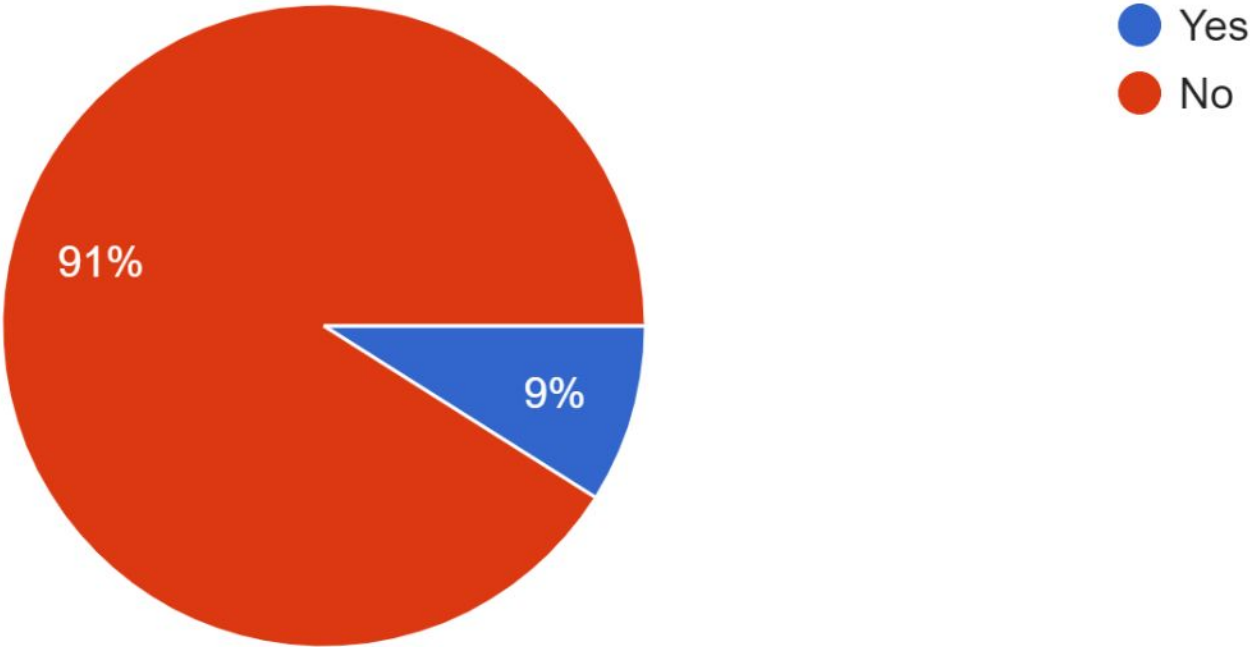

How often do you hear about human trafficking?

78 responses

Do you think human trafficking is correctly represented in our community/country?

78 responses

Our Initial Research

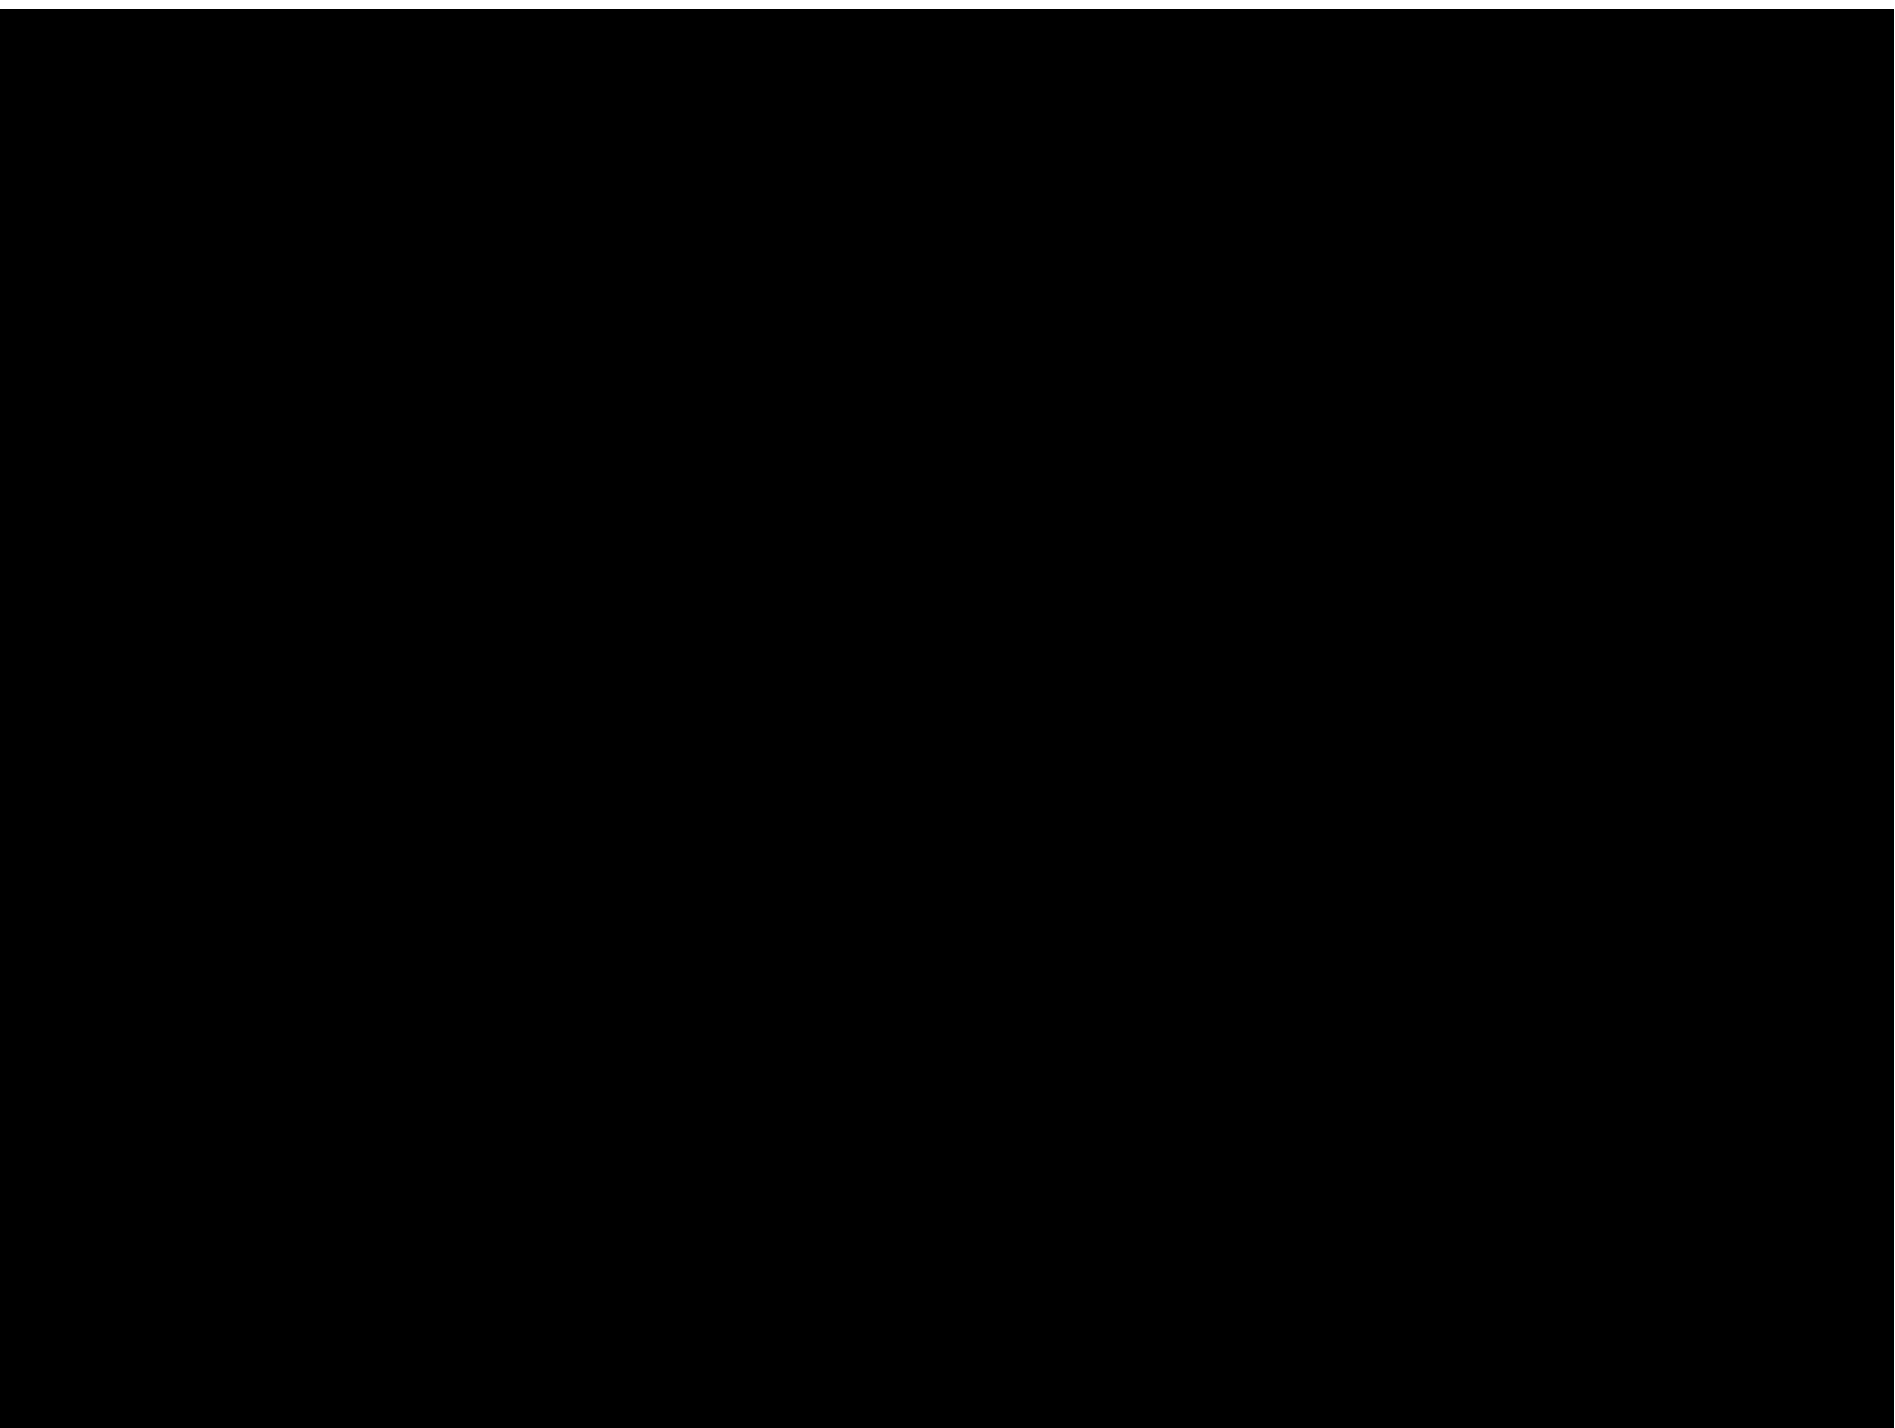

- Many Longwood students believe human trafficking is a serious issue
 - But very few students hear about it often.

We Created a Short Video to Give Basic Information about Human Trafficking

The Goal

- To broaden Longwood student knowledge on a serious issue

Why is This a Civic Issue?

- Human trafficking is local and global.
- Anyone could be a victim.

The Estimated Cost of Our Project

Cost for the Class to be taught

This class will need a professor to teach it and assuming that it is taught as an extra class to the professors normal workload, it will cost around $3,000 for a professor to teach the class

Cost for the Student taking the class

Virginia State Residents

Assuming that the class will be a normal three credit class the class will cost $1,434 per student, based on Longwood University's cost per credit.

Cost for the Student taking the class

Out-of-State Residents

Assuming that the class will be a normal three credit class the class will cost $2,616 per student, based on Longwood University's cost per credit.

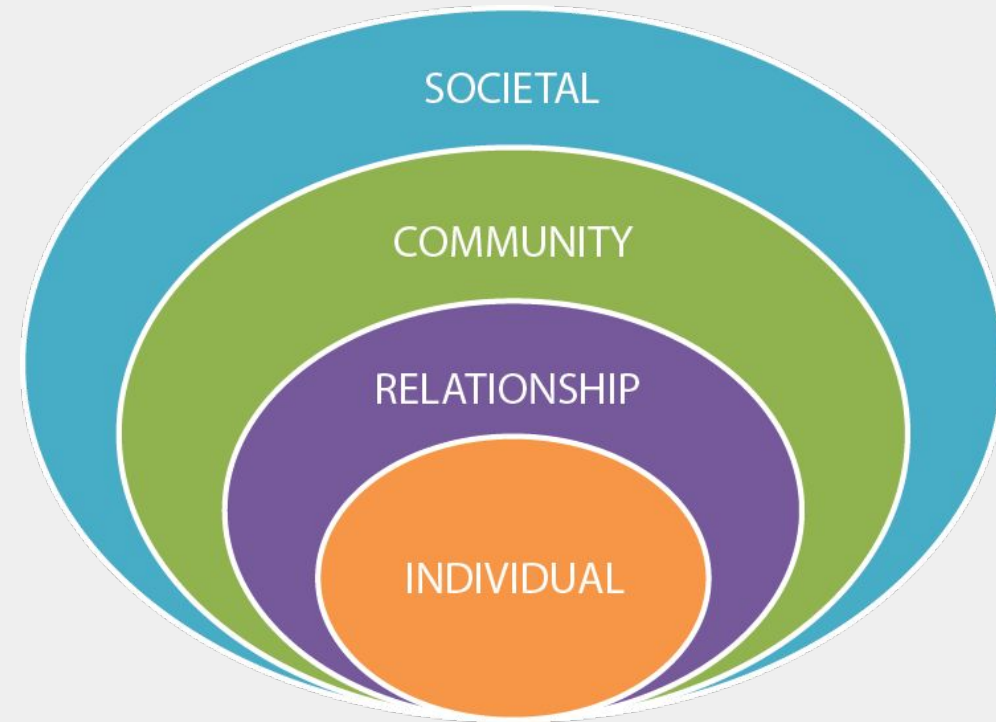

Mini Lesson Demo

Lesson Topic

Impact

Lesson Topic

Action

Questions?

Our Emails:

erin.axeman@live.longwood.edu

virginia.bryington@live.longwood.edu

jessica.laplaga@live.longwood.edu