

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Stephanie Adomako for any future endeavors in the field of social work. As her supervisor during her internship at the Alexandria Public Defender's Office, I had the opportunity to witness Stephanie's exceptional dedication, empathy, and professional growth firsthand.

Throughout her internship, Stephanie consistently demonstrated a deep commitment to supporting clients challenging circumstances. She approached every task with care and a genuine desire to make a positive difference in the lives of others. Her compassionate demeanor and strong interpersonal skills allowed her] to establish rapport with clients from diverse backgrounds, fostering an environment of trust and mutual respect.

Stephanie exhibited a remarkable capacity for empathy and understanding, actively listening to clients' concerns and advocating on their behalf to ensure they received the support and resources they needed. She demonstrated a keen ability to assess clients' needs, develop individualized care plans, and connect them with appropriate community resources and services.

Moreover, Stephanie displayed a high level of professionalism and integrity in all aspects of her work. She approached challenges with a positive attitude and a willingness to learn, seeking guidance when needed and proactively seeking opportunities for professional development. Her strong work ethic, professionalism, reliability, and adaptability were truly commendable and greatly contributed to the success of our team.

Beyond her clinical skills, Stephanie also actively engaged in reflective practice and demonstrated a commitment to ongoing self-improvement. She eagerly participated in supervision sessions, sought feedback on performance, and reflected thoughtfully on experiences, showing a genuine dedication to personal and professional growth. Stephanie also worked well with fellow colleagues within our office.

In conclusion, I have the utmost confidence in Stephanie's abilities and potential to excel in the field of social work. She has demonstrated exceptional competence, compassion, and dedication throughout this placement, and I am confident that she will continue to make meaningful contributions within the field throughout her lifetime. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me via email with any additional questions.

Respectfully,

Nicola Borrell, MSW
