

Undergraduate Faculty Professional Development Day
August 10, 2023

Civitae Core Curriculum

Description: These Civitae work sessions are designed as a once-per-year opportunity for Civitae faculty teaching in specific classes and/or skills to come together to discuss course design, assessment, and revision. Faculty are strongly encouraged to attend the sessions for which they teach and to join the group for lunch. It is not necessary to stay for every session. Faculty not teaching in Civitae are also welcome.

Cormier Honors College

Syllabus Design for Honors Classes, Learn to Cormier 2023

Time 10am – 12pm Location TBA

Facilitators Hannah Dudley-Shotwell and other Honors faculty

We will focus primarily on turning your pre-existing courses into Honors courses. Come hungry! The Honors College will provide lunch afterward. An RSVP form will follow later in the summer. Please direct questions to Hannah at shotwellhg@longwood.edu.

Center for Faculty Enrichment

Teaching Writing in the Age of AI

Time 1pm – 2:30pm Location Allen 308 (CAFE Classroom)

Facilitators David Magill & Sean Barry

Whether you see Chat GPT as an exciting tool for student writing or a worrisome shortcut for students, we invite you to join us for a session dedicated to examining writing as a tool for student engagement in the age of AI. Drawing on faculty feedback as well as what experts in the teaching of writing and literacy tell us about how students learn these indispensable skills, this session aims to help teachers assess the potential impact of these technologies and align writing pedagogy with students' needs.

Course/Syllabus Design

Time 2:30pm – 4pm Location Allen 308 (CAFE Classroom)

Facilitators Adam Franssen

Want to update your syllabus or even some aspects of your course? Just attended the AI workshop and want to reconsider a few course elements? Join us for a discussion of how you might implement key changes that will make your Fall semester more effective and a bit easier. There will be small group and 1-on-1 discussions to help implement the changes discussed.

Assignment Design & Alignment

Time 2:30pm – 4pm Location Allen 310 (CAFE Lounge)

Facilitators Pam Tracy

Has AI thrown some of your assignments for a loop? In this session, we'll discuss options for making assignments less AI-able, while ensuring alignment with course student learning outcomes. Please join this working session to share your ideas and hear from others. There will be small group and 1-on-1 discussions to help implement the changes discussed.

Shut up and Write work session

Time 4pm – 5pm Location Allen 308, Allen 304 (Conference Room)

Facilitators CAFE Staff

Following the 2:30pm sessions and before the reception, you'll have an hour to play with. Please feel free to stay in Allen and make a few more changes to your courses and assignments. CAFE facilitators will be around to help if you ask. Otherwise, we'll stay out of your way!

Faculty Reception

Sponsors CAFE and Academic Affairs

Time 5pm – 7pm Location Allen 310 (CAFE Faculty Lounge)

Description Please join us for drinks and snacks to celebrate the first ever Undergraduate Faculty Professional Development Day and kick off the start of the academic year! No agenda, just an opportunity to (re)connect with colleagues from across campus.
